Each Siyalima wine has been carefully selected to achieve a balance of freshness, depth, and harmony that complements both the menu and the overall dining experience. My intention is to showcase predominantly South African varietals that authentically express their terroir, highlighting established wine-growing regions while also introducing exciting new discoveries that add a fresh dimension to the curated selection. The wine list before you offers a considered balance of elegance, approachability, and seasonal relevance, crafted to deliver a memorable and well-timed wine journey.
